

York University's
HISTORY OF INDIGENOUS PEOPLES (HIP) NETWORK & INDIGENOUS STUDIES PROGRAM

present

INDIGENOUS WORKSHOPS WINTER 2019

Images by:

Dayna Danger (Metis
 & Saulteaux)
 “Adrienne Double
 Battle Axe” 2017

&

Nico Williams
 (Anishinaabe), “The Wake Ceremony” 2018

FRI, FEB 1, 3-5 PM AMY MALBEUF & JESSIE RAY SHORT METIS ARTISTS Curators’ Talk CFA Room 130	WED, FEB 13, 10-12 NOON JAMES CULLINGHAM TAMARACK PRODUCTIONS Reconciliation: Taking Stock, Moving Forward Kaneff 749	TBA DANIEL LAXER ONTARIO MINISTRY OF INDIGENOUS AFFAIRS Mapping Treaties in Ontario Kaneff 749
TUES, MARCH 12, 10-12 NOON ANNA JARVIS HIST DEPT, YORK U Murder, manslaughter, or justified retribution? Tom Williams, Mi'kmaw justice, and colonial law, PEI, 1838 Kaneff 749	MON, APRIL 8, 10-12 AM WILLIAM JOHN CAMPBELL HISTORY DEPT, U OF MEMPHIS Pulling Empire into Indian Country: First Peoples and the Frontiers of Early America, 1740-1775 Kaneff 749	MON, APRIL 8, 12- 2 PM DAVID KOFFMAN HISTORY DEPT, YORK U Book Launch for: The Jews’ Indian: Colonialism, Pluralism, and Belonging in America (Rutgers 2019). Kaneff 7th floor. Lunch provided. Jointly sponsored by the Koschitzky Centre for Jewish Studies

Thank you to the Robarts Centre for Canadian Studies, the Provost, and the Faculty of Liberal Arts & Professional Studies at York University and to the Social Sciences and Humanities Research Council of Canada.